

LLOYD GEORGE 5 KILOMETRE FUN RUN

ORGANISED BY THE LLANYSTUMDWY CARNIVAL COMMITTEE

ON WEDNESDAY 12TH SEPTEMBER 2007

STARTING AT 6:30 IN LLANYSTUMDWY

ENTRY FEE £4 – ENTRY ON THE DAY ONLY

CHILDREN'S RACES STARTING AT 6:00

The races were due to be held as part of the Carnival, but they were cancelled due to the fact that the children's events were to take place on the fields and the conditions underfoot were not too good.

Registration will take place from 5:30 in Llanystumdwy School.

The race will start at Lloyd George's old school, run past his grave and pass his homes in both Llanystumdwy and Criccieth before finishing at the Lloyd George museum.

From the school the 5 kilometre race will cross the Afon Dwyfor bridge and turn sharp left up the hill to Bryn Awelon on the outskirts of Criccieth. Here the course turns sharp right down to the main road and then proceeds on the FOOTPATH back to Llanystumdwy.

Hopefully there will be a limited number of prizes.

After the race has finished it is hoped that a barbecue will be held on the football field or school playing field.
