Thank you to Buckley Running Club and Deeside Athletic Club for jointly hosting the Championships and to Rob Mackey and Mrs Sue Sayer, in particular, for all their hard work. The courses were excellent and praised by all the runners, who are grateful to the marshals for ensuring that they all came back safely.

Our small band of dedicated helpers also deserve our thanks because, without their willingness to give up their afternoon, it would be impossible for us to stage the event. We all appreciate your support.

As an Association we are extremely grateful to Gregsons Solicitors for again sponsoring the event. We thank them for their generous donation with particular thanks to Mr Simon Brennan for his interest and support. Thank you also to Mr Gwyn Bartley who spent the whole afternoon in our company, presenting awards and socialising with a great number of cross country enthusiasts. Diolch yn fawr iawn am eich cwmni.

Finally, our thanks to the 248 athletes who took part in the 2007 Championships. Despite all the rival attractions you decided to support our event and this makes all the hard work and effort worthwhile. We hope to see you again in 2008.

Thank you Diolch yn fawr

David Alun Williams
